CHAIRMANS REPORT

It has been with great pleasure that I have chaired this Association, in the fourth season since the reintroduction of the BOIDC competition.

I hope you enjoy this annual report as a bit of a snapshot of our season. We reverted back to the 'standard' mixture of one day and two day cricket again this season and what a fantastic season it was. We had some magnificent cricket played during the season which culminated in a classic grand final.

We had some challenges across the season. Firstly the wet ground conditions threatened to create havoc early on, with the first 3 rounds affected by weather. Having grounds prepared in these early weeks was proving to be a real struggle. Then, just before round 5, we lost Centennials Bulls which reduced our competition to 9 teams, creating a bye.

We did what we needed to do to get through these early challenges and what we saw from there was some pretty decent cricket weather and some fantastic cricket.

Orange CYMS surprised everyone and turned around their fortunes from the previous season. They went from second last to the minor premiership, with the limited overs title to boot.

We saw an exceptionally high number of outright results across the 6 rounds of two day matches played. One of those matches between Cavaliers and Orange City was tied on first innings before Cavaliers went on to win outright. The batters seemingly had a field day, with 29 centuries scored. The bowlers saw their fair share of the action too, with 20 x 5 wicket innings hauls and 2 x 10 wicket match hauls.

Thank you to everybody involved in making cricket happen in our towns. From the ground staff and volunteers who prepare the grounds, to the volunteers at the clubs, the umpires and to the administrators at both the Orange and Bathurst District Cricket Associations. Your time and efforts across the past season have been greatly appreciated.

Thank you also to all of the umpires who have stood in BOIDC matches this season and most importantly, thank you to the partners and families that support our players and administrators enabling us all to enjoy this fabulous game.

Mark Frecklington

Chairman

Centennials Bulls withdraw from 2022-23 Bathurst Orange Inter District Cricket season

By Bradley Jurd

CENTENNIALS Bulls has cited a lack of depth for its decision to withdraw from the 2022-23 Bathurst Orange District Cricket Association (BOIDC) season.

The Bathurst club made the hard call to withdraw from BOIDC this week, a decision club president Shannon Dawes didn't take lightly. He said the club ultimately had "little choice" to withdraw its first grade team.

"We don't really have the depth in the lower grades to cover our shortages in first grade," he said. "Although we've been short at the start of the season, we were hoping to bring back a few players but we've suffered a few major injuries in recent weeks, which will leave us well short.

"There just wasn't enough players to cover our injuries and not enough in second grade to bring them up into first grade."

But it's not all doom and gloom for Centennials, with Dawes confident that his club will field a team in BOIDC for the 2023-24 season. "Everyone is committed to playing with us next season," he said.

"We've just got to do a bit more of a drive in the off-season to bring a few extra numbers. You can't really run with a neat 11 in first grade. You need to have a few extras to cover you with injuries like this. "We are confident of getting the numbers for next year. We're starting straight up next week, putting the wheels in motion to get our team ready for next year.

"It's disappointing. Was it something we wanted to do? No, but when we looked at every avenue, we had to pull the pin. "We had a meeting on Wednesday night to discuss the issue with the players. We'll probably save ourselves a bit of respect by not dragging the matter on any further."

Dawes said Centennials didn't enter a Bonnor Cup team this season, in order to focus on first grade. "We were confident of putting a team in at the start of the season, so that's why we pulled out of the Bonnor Cup, so that we could concentrate on first grade," he said.

Dawes said while Centennials' financial position is strong, it is lacking in the junior department, with no sides in any junior grades. "We need to shift our focus to the grass roots," he said.

The Bathurst club is fielding a team in Bathurst District Cricket Association second grade and presidents cup competitions.

Dawes said he had been in conversation with BOIDC president Mark Frecklington, who said players registered with Centennials may be able to play for different clubs during the 2022-23 season, before returning to Bulls.

Frecklington confirmed whoever was scheduled to play Centennials will now have a bye instead, but he was yet to confirm how many points a team would receive for a bye. There will now be nine teams in BOIDC for the rest of the season.

Centennials had only played just the one game in BOIDC this season, last Saturday against Orange City in a five-wicket defeat at Morse Park 1. Centennials had been scheduled to play Orange CYMS, Cavaliers and Rugby Union in the opening three games, but all three games were abandon due to wet weather.

IN THE NEWS - APRIL 2 2023

John Warrington scores a century in Cavaliers' BOIDC grand final victory

In the lead up to the Bathurst Orange Inter District Cricket grand final between CYMS and Cavaliers, two predictions were made. One was by Cavaliers captain Matt Corben, who stated Kyle Buckley would be his man if a partnership needed to be broken. The second was by John Warrington that he would make a hundred. Albeit, jokingly he said. Both came true, and both resulted in a clinical Cavaliers victory.

For Corben, the win was hard to put into words. "It's amazing, that's a pretty clinical performance from us to bowl them out on a pretty flat deck and score 270 in a grand final," he said. "That doesn't lose many grand finals and for Johnny Warrington to carry his bat in the grand final is unreal, I'm lost for words."

The men in maroon set the platform on day one when they were 7/234 at the end of the day. A hundred of those runs came from opener Warrington, who showed the importance of patience and trusting your defence with a sensational innings.

Cavaliers resumed the day and batted for a further 11 overs before they were bowled out for 269, with Warrington 117 not out.

Warrington put his innings down to sticking to a game plan, after watching a number of his teammates fall in similar ways with CYMS taking plenty of catches. "I was saying all week jokingly that I was going to score a hundred and then for it to actually happen and do it in the fashion I did was pretty surreal to be honest," he said.

"The main point was that if a wicket was lost stick to my game plan, and I knew runs would come because the pitch was pretty flat. "I just had to be patient, I was on 25 after the two hour mark, I knew if I batted the way I bat the runs would come."

Knowing they needed to score runs at a decent pace before the day finished, CYMS opener Joey Coughlan started with two boundaries before he was bowled by Buckley for 10.

A steady flow of wickets then came for the Cavaliers machine with CYMS 3/62. Charlie Tink and Dave Neil came together and offered stability in the middle, combining for a 55-run partnership before the latter was trapped in front for 25.

Slowly more wickets came, and the dismissal of Tink (62) at 7/169 would've had Cavaliers thinking one hand was on the trophy. Rory Daburger and Hugh Le Lievre then swung momentum back in CYMS' favour with a 50-run partnership. Josh Ward, who bowled 20 overs straight in the game, removed Le Lievre for 21, leaving not much in the tank for CYMS.

Then the bowler that Corben named his danger man stepped up. First Buckley bowled Jamie Austin for 4, and then had Rory Daburger caught on the boundary by Hugh Middleton, leaving CYMS short of the required total and Cavaliers to celebrate in each others arms.

With Buckley claiming four wickets, Corben was full of praise for his opening bowler. "He's whacked us on our shoulders a few times this season and grown a leg with Harry Pearce being injured," he said. "I think he's stood up and taken that leader role and did it again today - Josh Ward bowling 20 straight was unreal too."

Cavaliers' victory makes it two titles for the year in first grade after the club snapped up the Royal Hotel Bonnor Cup too, along with wins in second grade and Centenary Cup.

Corben put his side's success down to a team-first attitude. "I think it is the way we play selfless cricket, there's not one innings where the players come first before the team," he said. "The players have put the team first and done what needed to be done in the games and that gets results."

Warrington was awarded player of the match for his century while Cooper Brien won player of the season.
