- d) The captain of a team shall ensure that the players (including a person acting as substitute fielder) comply with the Code of Conduct.
- e) The captain of a team breaches the Code of Conduct if a player in that team engages in continuing disorderly or improper conduct or behaviour.
- f) The code of conduct also extends to the official cricket functions organised by the Association or any Affiliate.

5.3. Effect of penalties imposed by the Judiciary Committee

- a) No replacement player or substitute is allowed for any player who is suspended or disqualified by a judiciary committee of the Association during the course of a match.
- b) Any person who has been suspended or fined or otherwise dealt with by the Judiciary Committee may, at the discretion of the Judiciary Committee:
 - (i) be prohibited from acting in any administrative position or as an office-bearer of the person's club or as captain of any team taking part in any match conducted by the Association; and
 - (ii) not be eligible to act as a Delegate Member or an office-bearer of the Association, until the annual general meeting of the Association held after the expiration of such suspension or disqualification or held after the day on which such fine is paid to the Association.

5.4. Suspended players

- a) Any player who has been suspended by the Judiciary Committee or by any other properly constituted cricket disciplinary authority will be ineligible for selection during the period of the suspension in any team in a competition conducted by the Association or in any team selected by or representing the Association.
- b) For the purpose of (a) above, the period of suspension shall be:
 - (i) the period from the first date until the last date, both dates inclusive, where a time period suspension is imposed; and
 - (ii) each day of play of a match where a match based suspension is imposed. Where a match is not played due to inclement weather or for any other reason, the original scheduled days of play shall constitute the period of suspension.
- c) Any player who has been suspended by the Judiciary Committee or by any other properly constituted cricket disciplinary authority will be ineligible to be appointed or to act as captain of any team representing the Association until the commencement of the Annual General Meeting of the Association held after the expiration of the suspension.
- d) A player who lodges an appeal against a suspension imposed by the Judiciary Committee or by any other properly constituted cricket disciplinary authority will be ineligible for selection in any team in a competition conducted by the Association or in any team selected by or representing the Association until the decision to suspend the player has been overturned or amended by the appellate body or the period of the suspension has expired.
